4. Aggrieved by appointment of Inquiry Authority in the reference 7th read above, Sri J.G. Murali, I.P.S. (Retd.), has field O.A.No.530 of 2013 before the Hon'ble Central Administrative Tribunal, Hyderabad to quash and set aside the said orders. The Central Administrative Tribunal, Hyderabad in its final orders in the reference 8th read above observed that "…No doubt, dropping of the criminal proceedings would not prohibit continuance of departmental proceedings. But, when the G.O. is issued with specific findings with regard to certain aspects, in our opinion, departmental proceedings for the same cannot be continued. When there is no misappropriation of funds by the applicant as per the G.O. and what happened were only procedural irregularities or administrative lapses, there is no question of proceeding departmentally against the applicant, once again, for the alleged misappropriation of funds. All the 8 charges framed against the applicant deal with only misappropriation of funds. Thus, the charges against the applicant in the present form cannot proceed, though the departmental proceedings against him can continue"; and, ordered to modify charge memorandum against the Member of Service excluding any element of misappropriation of funds, but only alleging procedural deviation and administrative lapses". Sri J.G. Murali, I.P.S.(Retired), in his letter in the reference 9th read above has stated that the Government to conclude the disciplinary proceedings further, as it would be not possible to continue in the context of circumstances enumerated in his representation; and, requested to issue orders duly dropping of further action in the matter for the fact that all the charges relates to misappropriation of funds and this misappropriation was declared as not there by the Government.

5. After careful examination of the matter and since the Member of Service has been absolved of the misappropriation charge which is the main charge and the Central Administrative Tribunal has also held that the disciplinary action cannot be proceeded further, Government decided to drop further action in the matter. Accordingly, further action against Sri J.G.Murali, I.P.S., formerly Superintendent of Police, Visakhapatnam (Rural) is hereby dropped in respect of charges initiated in the reference 2nd read above.

6. The Director General of Police (HoPF), Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad shall take necessary further action accordingly.
